

WHO THE NEW YEAR BRINGS INTO OFFICE

The overwhelming victory of the democrats in the state cannot be readily grasped by the public, but look over the sweep made in all the counties of the state is rather convincing that everybody and his sister, and his cousin, and his aunt voted the democratic ticket to help swell the majority. Counties that have been quite rock-ribbed gave way before the democratic onslaught and elected practically every democratic officer.

One of the features is the legislature. Out of nineteen members of the senate the democrats have returned eighteen, the republicans one. This lonely gentleman is Judge Phillips, of Maricopa. The house did not fare so well, five republicans out of thirty-nine escaping the slaughter. One of the five was a woman, Mrs. Freda Marks, of Maricopa.

The following list of national, judicial, state and county officers that will take over the offices after the first of the year:
